

Webinar “Non-academic career paths after a PhD: sharing experience with a company representative and a PhD holder”

Goals

- Understanding the challenges of recruiting PhDs for a company
- Understand what recruiters expect from PhDs (in terms of skills and personal qualities)
- Discover the jobs offered to PhDs by companies, including non-research jobs.
- Discover career developments after a PhD
- Get information and advice to help you develop your career

Programme

- Round table with two speakers:
 - a representative from a company recruiting PhDs
 - a doctorate holder who has evolved outside the academic sector, testifying to his or her career path and giving advice to foster this evolution

Speakers
