

Webinar “Preparing job interviews for non-academic positions”

Goals

Increase your awareness of recruiters' expectations and enable you to optimise your oral communication during the recruitment process; know how to present your background in relation to the targeted position.

Programme

- Understand the recruitment process in a company to optimize its communication.
 - Know the different steps of the recruitment process and the different types of recruiters
 - Know the challenges and expectations of recruiters
- Convincing the recruiter
 - Preparing for the interview: before, during and after the interview
 - Knowing how to present yourself during the process and meet the expectations of recruiters: focus on the valorization of the research experience and achievements
 - Managing non-verbal communication
 - Taking into account cultural specificities